Participant Consent Form – for young people

Project title	De-anthropomorphising LLMs through experiential learning: building workshops with young people
Principal investigator	Prof Fiona McNeill – f.j.mcneill@ed.ac.uk
Researcher	Rayo Verweij – rayo.verweij@ed.ac.uk

You've been invited to participate in a research project through your school or youth club, and your parents/guardians have given approval for you to take part. However, it is still up to you to decide whether you want to take part or not.

Make sure to read the Participant Information Sheet for more information on what it means to take part in the study.

Remember the following:

- You can choose whether you want to take part in the workshop or not.
- You can stop taking part or take a break if you want to. You do not have to say why.
- It is OK if you change your mind later, and say you don't want to take part anymore.
- There are no wrong answers to questions – we're not testing you, but rather we're interested in your opinions and experiences.

Do you want to take part in this workshop?
